2. PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

INTRODUCTION

a. Description of the Act

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 ("the Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request. The Act is read in conjunction with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013.

b. Purpose

This manual is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within the Financial Services Industry as a whole, by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Section 9 of the Act however recognises that such right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance;

And, in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This manual sets out to provide a generic manual to the Financial Services Industry to deal with the requests in a conforming manner, which will enable the requestors to obtain the records which they are entitled to in a quick, easy and accessible manner. This manual may be adapted by the individual role players in the Financial Services Industry to specifically meet their needs. Provisions of sections 18 and 53 of the Act apply to requests made in terms of section 23 of the Protection of Personal Information Act.

Wherever reference is made to "institution" in this manual, it will refer to the private bodies within the Financial Services Industry, for whom this manual is drafted. This manual has been drafted in accordance with the generic manual for the Financial Services Industry, which has been submitted to the Human Rights Commission by the Compliance Institute of South Africa, of which this body is a member.
